IN GERMAN RIOTMajor and Three Soldiers
Wounded in Sarrebrück
Labor Demonstration.

Paris, France, Oct. 18.—A French major and three soldiers were wounded in a riot at Sarrebrück, in occupied Germany, on Tuesday, according to a dispatch today to the Petit Parisien. The riot is described as having grown out of labor demonstrations against the high cost of living in which German forces joined.

100 FRENCH OFFICERS TO
SEE THAT GERMANS DISARM

Paris, France, Oct. 18.—(Havas).—Speaking in the senate Thursday on the disarmament of Germany, Louis Bourgeois declared that measures would have to be applied immediately after satisfaction of treaty to that end.

President Clemenceau, interrupting, said: "They will not do so. I have 100 French officers in Berlin to see to it."

Turks Are Not
So Unspeakable,
Says E. C. Wade"Y" Worker Says Enemy
Treated British Prisoners
With Consideration.

That the Mesopotamian valley, in southwestern Asia, is no place for a white man and that the Turk isn't so unspeakable as he has been painted, were two of the discoveries made by E. C. Wade, Jr., an El Paso attorney who spent several months as a "Y" M. C. A. secretary with the British army.

Mr. Wade, who returned to El Paso Thursday night, has reopened his office in the First National bank building, left a year ago to serve as a "Y" worker overseas. Since he left he has completed a circuit of the globe and has seen most of the battle grounds of the war.

In October, 1918, Mr. Wade sailed from New York with troops of the 24th or 25th division, trained at Deming, N. M. He went to England, then to Havre, France, still with the 24th, from Havre he went to Paris, where he was assigned to duty with the British expeditionary forces in the Holy Land. From Paris he went to Rome, where he became ill with influenza and was confined in a military hospital several weeks.

From Rome he went to Tarragona, Spain, and from there to Port Said, and on to Bombay, India, where he was assigned to Baghdad, headquarters of Gen. Allenby.

During his five months in Mesopotamia Mr. Wade says he saw men die like flies in the terrible heat, which often reaches 127 degrees in the shade. The British had to learn to do their fighting in the early morning and in the evening. The Turks were considerably enough of the British not to fight at any other time.

The Turks also treated their prisoners well, Mr. Wade says. Mesopotamia is not a white man's country, the former "Y" worker declares, and the British asked only to get away from it.

JOHNSON TO END
WESTERN TOUROpposes Joining League to "Guarantee The Other Fellow's Game."

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 18.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, will conclude his western speaking tour against unreserved ratification of the league of nations covenant, with addresses at Ogden and Salt Lake City, Utah, Saturday and Sunday night. Senator Johnson expects to reach Washington Tuesday, he notified his colleagues.

Under the league of nations, as proposed by President Wilson, the United States "will be inextricably mixed with every quarrel in central Europe, until the year 1921," senator Johnson declared last night to a cheering audience which filled to its doors the state armory here. American soldiers will be kept in Europe under the provisions of the league covenant, he said, and added:

"I want to bring these boys home and keep them home."

Self-determination, "scrapped." Self-determination, along with the rest of the idealistic principles expounded by President Wilson, "was scrapped at Paris," senator Johnson further charged, and pointed out the president, who at first had denounced secret treaties, later said that "some of the treaties were unscrupulous, but it looks as if they must be observed."

Prolonged applause greeted the senator's decided statement that "you and your son shall not be forced to guarantee the secret agreements" made by America's cobelligerents.

Shouts of approval greeted the suggestion that it might have been well to have employed premier Lloyd George to represent the United States at the peace conference, judging from the results he secured for England.

Senator Johnson paused in his address to state that he had received a telegram from Washington, D. C., stating that senator Walsh, an upright Democrat from Massachusetts, today had declared himself in favor of the United States having an equal vote with Great Britain in the assembly of the league of nations.

"President Wilson went to Europe and sat in the other fellow's game," continued the senator. "He got just what usually happens to a man who does that. To join in the present proposed league would be to guarantee the other fellow's game, and I don't want to do that."

President Wilson was denounced as "unfair and unstatesmanlike" for bringing back the league of nations covenant. "We tied up with the peace treaty that they must stand or fall together."

GEN. JOSEPH T. DICKMAN WILL VISIT FORT BLISS SUNDAY

Major Gen. Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the southern department, will spend Sunday and part of Monday in El Paso. He advised Maj. Gen. Robert L. Howes he did not want a special ceremony for his arrival. He will visit Fort Bliss and military headquarters.

ARMY OFFICERS TRANSFERRED. Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—Maj. Frank S. Thompson, 2nd Cavalry, Corps Camp Meade, has been ordered to Fort Bayard. First Lieut. Thomas J. Walsh, 1st Cavalry, Fort Bliss, has been ordered to Camp Meade. First Lieut. William Devans Fallon, veterinary corps, has been ordered from Camp Kearney to El Paso.

W. C. C. S. Gives
Entertainment
To Service MenFormer Sailors and Friends
Have a Big Time in Liberty Hall.

Men who shouldered the rifle and the sword east and west, and those who scrubbed the decks, and then girl and women friends, had a big time Thursday night at Liberty hall. The War Camp Community Service gave the entertainment and dance, which lasted from 8 o'clock to midnight.

The entertainment opened with a grand march led by Col. James R. Brown and Mrs. Charles Davis, wife of the mayor. Two hundred and fifty couples were in the grand march, and the large floor of the hall was crowded with dancers.

Music was furnished by the orchestra of the El Paso Community Service. Mrs. Corinne Green sang while a dozen little tots represented the court of the king and queen. One little fellow blew his horn, as he was not supposed to do, while the women sang, which caused a lot of laughter.

Mrs. Mabel Moody's orchestra played. Rev. P. M. Johnson, Jr., spoke for 10 minutes, making an appeal for the service men to join the American legion.

While the spot lights played upon him, N. J. Durkin, a Water performer, finished his act with a flourish. Refreshments of coffee and cake, furnished by the women friends of the W. C. C. S., were served.

The celebration was in charge of Lyman H. Reed, executive secretary of the W. C. C. S. for El Paso.

peace conference, judging from the results he secured for England.

Senator Johnson paused in his address to state that he had received a telegram from Washington, D. C., stating that senator Walsh, an upright Democrat from Massachusetts, today had declared himself in favor of the United States having an equal vote with Great Britain in the assembly of the league of nations.

"President Wilson went to Europe and sat in the other fellow's game," continued the senator. "He got just what usually happens to a man who does that. To join in the present proposed league would be to guarantee the other fellow's game, and I don't want to do that."
